Ans.: (III) The idea of lateral entry.....

In the theory ~~of~~ William uchi named 'Jack of all', the author argued on specialized vs.
generalized^{sts} approach in terms of administration. The debate on this issue is not new across the globe.
 recently in India, the Cabinet has announced to recruit 10 joint secretary level post ~~from~~ directly from specialized sector. Is it rational with regular recruitment?
 How does it helps ~~to~~ India?

There are many advantages and disadvantages ~~to~~ associated with lateral entry in civil services. First let us see the advantages of lateral entry.

CSM-2

Lateral entry means recruitment of specialized person in to administration. The specialized persons have long experience in the same field so they know the each direction of the particular sector. For example Arvind Subramanyam sir, he has long experience of economy, same way dr. Manmohan Singh, ~~and~~ dr. Raghuram Rajan had served nation and had taken key changes decision on India economy.

They helps to make policy people centric and problem centric. The specialized person gives innovative ideas as they have associated with people on ground root level. example is Kailash Satyarthi. if he will appoint as administrator than he will definitely change the child care sector.

As each coin has two side, in the same way the lateral entry in Civil services have couple of demerits dissociated with it. These are : i) it will rupture the ideal recruitment model of UPSC. ii) it will demoralise the young and shining administrators who are working hard to clear the exam. iii) Specialized ~~sector~~ persons are coming from private sector, if they have tied with corporate then it may be chances of lobbying. and at the end it will disturb the work culture of bureaucracy.

At the end, we can summarise that For better policy making, to strengthen country's economy with people's centric approach, lateral entry is important. but it should be noted that the process of recruitment of Specialize person should be within upsc and should be transparent.

Q. 7.

Write a precis of the following passage in about one-third of its original length.

Bureaucracy has been viewed and conceptualized not only as an administrative organization but also as a cohesive well-knit elite structure of diverse and disparate elements, who despite a wide differentiation in terms of their background, education, social status and upbringing are united in preserving their exclusive monopolistic hold over administration. While the old ICS ethos is still preserved in some form or other, the new entrants have also a vision of the changed present.

The Indian Bureaucratic apparatus is riddled with newer challenges - the challenges of nation building and legitimating. The new genre of servicemen belonging to other services are vying with each other to usurp the authority wielded by this exclusive group. What India needs are a number of apex services to obviate the necessity of maintaining one apex service to the exclusion of other similar services. That alone can prevent inter-service and intra-service feuds and create an atmosphere of cordiality and cooperation among various service segments. The basis of this parity will have to be parity in mode of intake into the service, followed by other conditions and modalities of promotion and other benefits which can be multiple commissions to bring about uniformity in recruitment conditions and promotions cannot be emphasized. A plural society, needing an infinite number of generalists and specialists for fulfilling the coveted goals of nation building, a foolproof system cannot be devised and even the foregoing suggestions have not been made in a perfectionist vein. All that embody is just hypothetical response to the challenging task of bringing about an egalitarian relationship among various societies in India.

To be meaningful, conversation should have an orientation on direction. It need not to be strategically planned but there should be a general drift of ideas in it. It has been said by the wise that speech is silver and silence is golden. Surely silence is preferable to inconsequential chit-chat. No good conversation is possible unless two or more individuals sit together feeling fully relaxed. Congeniality and understanding are the salient features of a good conversation.

I have often observed that strangers meeting for the first time look very uncomfortable. They are like two islands of experience and there is little sharing of ideas and notions between them. Two ladies meeting at the bus-stand while waiting for the bus would talk about the bus timings or about the weather by way of phatic conversation. But once they are on the bus and are together for half an hour, they would be as intimate as real sisters. Let us remember that conversation with friends is a mode of relaxation. Intimate friends could be, at times, very witty and satirical in tone. When a teacher establishes a rapport with his senior students, his conversation becomes very homely and endearing.

Conversation need not be a pontifical sermon but an exchange of amicable and pleasant ideas. It should be prompt and cohesive as it is participatory and interactive. Conversation is an art that can be cultivated and developed. It is a great boon which can be possessed by training, practice, patience and perseverance. One who acquires this art, his labors are fully rewarded. However, one must remember that conversation is not an enterprise designed to yield an extrinsic profit, a contest where a winner gets a prize, nor is it an activity of exegesis; it is an unrehearsed intellectual adventure. And it is this conversation which, in the real sense, gives place and character to every human activity and utterance.

Q. 10 Translate the following passage from Gujarati into English.

તમારો આદર્શ તો વિનોદ, જે શહીદ થયો છે, એણે જે બહાદુરી અને હિંમત બતાવી દેશદાઝનો: ભૂંનો રાખ્યો છે, તેને તમારે સંગ્રહી રાખવાનો છે, તેમાંથી જીવનના પાઠ લેવાના છે.

-સરદાર વલ્લભભાઈ પટેલ

અસહકારની ચળવળના દિવસો છે. બનારસની સંકૃત પાઠશાળા પાસેથી એક સરઘસ નીકળે છે. તે શાળાનો એક હષ્ટપુષ્ટ બદલવાનો વિદ્યાર્થી શ્લોક-પઠનનું કામ પડતું મૂકી તેમાં જોડાય છે. તેની જોશીલી જખાલને લીધે કોર્ટમાં ન્યાયાધીશ પંદર બેતની શિક્ષા કરાવે છે. બેતની સજા બહુ આકરી ગણાય, ગુન્હેવારને ત્રિકોણાકાર ઘોડી સાથે બાંધીને ખુલ્લા શરીર પર મીઠાના પાણીમાં ઝબકોળેલા બેતરના સોટા પતી માર પડે! એ વિદ્યાર્થી-બાળક પર જ્યાં પહેલો ફટકો પડે છે - ચામડી ધિરાય છે, લોહીના ટશિયા ફૂટે છે. તોય 'મહાત્મા ગાંધીકી જ્ય' બોલે છે. બીજા ફટકે ચામડીમાં અર્ધા ઇંચના ખાડા પડે છે. ત્રીજા શરીરમાંથી લોહીના છાંટા ઉડે છે! જ્યારે શિક્ષા પૂરી થાતાં બહાર આવે છે ત્યારે આખા બદનમાંથી લોહી વહી રહ્યું છે, શરીર પર, ઘૂંટલા લાલ તળબૂચના ટુકડા ની જેમ ડુધિરચુકત માંસ દેખાય છે. છતાં એકે ફટકે 'મહાત્મા ગાંધીકી જ્ય!' આ બોલવાનું ચૂક્યો નથી! સૌ મોંમાં આંજળાં ઘાલે છે: આતો બાળક, દેવ કે જાદૂગર!

આ બાળક-વિદ્યાર્થી તે ચંદ્રશેખર આઝાદ. વિનોદનું પ્રિય પાત્ર-એનો આદર્શ.

Ans: Your ideal Vinod- who is betrayed, showed his courage and strongness, set up an example of patriotism, you should save this example and should inspire from take life's inspiration from it.

- Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.
